OUR APPROACH TO DELIVERY

Flexibility

Rider Solutions recognises that each assignment is totally unique and offers complete flexibility in its approach to project delivery. Our service can be acquired through a range of alternative methods

- For a designated problem period or to provide short term support for a particular issue (e.g. to support a forthcoming funding bid or to help prepare a response to a Government policy document)
- As a secondment to cover short term absenteeism, maternity cover or a particularly busy period
- As a one-off contract to undertake a specific piece of work
- On a retainer for a specific number of hours per month. Given the breadth of our experience this may be of value to clients with limited resources and a range of issues/projects they wish to progress

Coaching/Mentoring style

Through a collaborative approach to delivery, as well as providing a high quality professional service, a further benefit of working with Rider Solutions will be a noticeable uplift in performance across your wider team. By challenging and questioning team members, skills and knowledge are transferred far more effectively through your organisation, leaving you in a far better position to cope with future challenges.
