- Excellent communication skills, conveying technical material in a digestible format to a non-technical audience

OUR APPROACH TO DELIVERY

Flexibility

Rider Solutions recognises that each assignment is totally unique and offers complete flexibility in its approach to project delivery. Our service can be acquired through a range of alternative methods

- For a designated problem period or to provide short term support for a particular issue (e.g. to support a forthcoming funding bid or to help prepare a response to a Government policy document)
- As a secondment to cover short term absenteeism, maternity cover or a particularly busy period
- As a one-off contract to undertake a specific piece of work
- On a retainer for a specific number of hours per month. Given the breadth of our experience this may be of value to clients with limited resources and a range of issues/projects they wish to progress

Coaching/Mentoring style

Through a collaborative approach to delivery, as well as providing a high quality professional service, a further benefit of working with Rider Solutions will be a noticeable uplift in performance across your wider team. By challenging and questioning team members, skills and knowledge are transferred far more effectively through your organisation, leaving you in a far better position to cope with future challenges.
